

PHISHING

(Social Engineering Attacks)

...

Group 19: Kendrick, Jacob, Leon, Drew

What is Phishing?

Phishing is a cybercrime in which a target or targets are contacted by email, telephone or text message by someone posing as a legitimate institution to lure individuals into providing sensitive data such as personally identifiable information, banking and credit card details, and passwords.

Project objective:

To spread awareness of how to detect phishing attacks and implement preventative measures

Understanding the problem

Identify and Assess

- Identify the signs of potential social engineering scams or phishing attempts

Mitigate

- Take proactive measures to prevent phishing and detect social engineering scams.

Demonstrate

- Examples of how to implement measures
 - Spam blockers
 - Phishing detectors
- Utilize external resources
 - Report fraud/phishing attempts to gov.

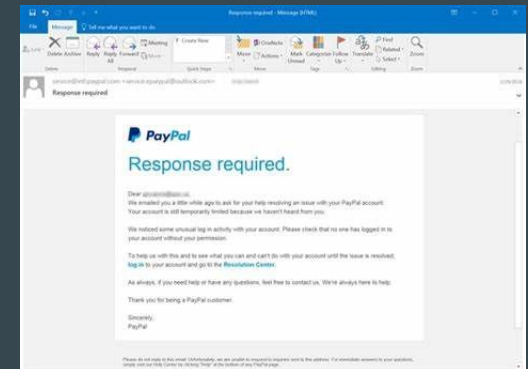

How to Identify and Assess Phishing

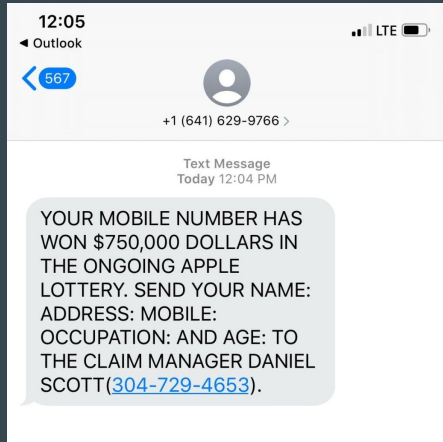

Phishing emails and Texts

How to Identify

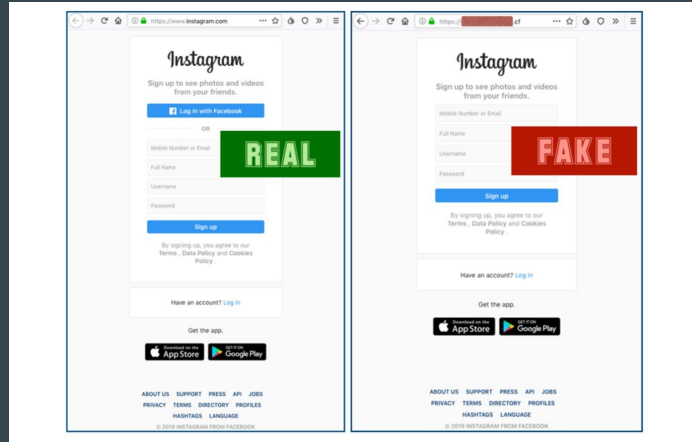

- A link to click
- Generic greeting
- Update payment details
- Billing problem
- Typos or unprofessional content

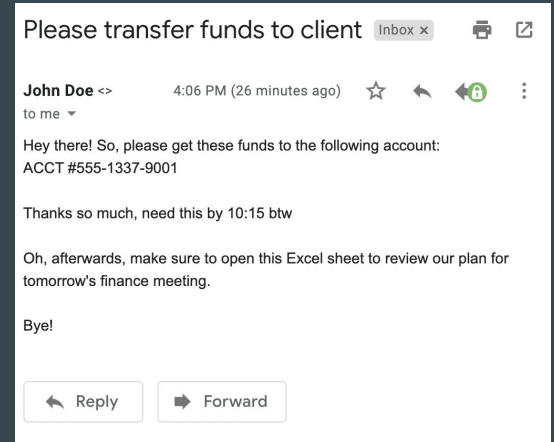

Examples of Phishing

Deceptive text messages

Fake login pages

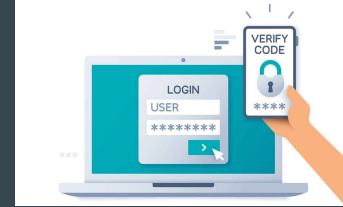

Spear-Phishing by way of hijacking

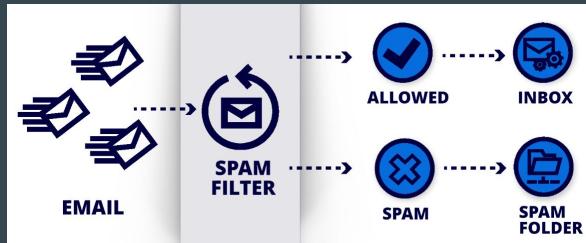

Examples of preventative measures

THIS MESSAGE IS NOT FROM CCC. Please do not open unexpected links or attachments.

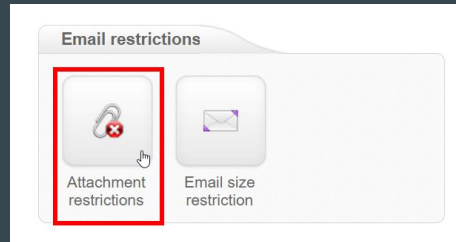

External Sender Notification Banner

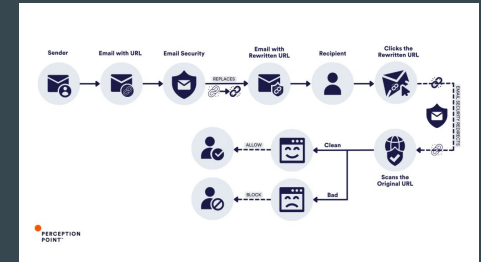

Require Multi-Factor Authentication

Spam/Phishing Filters

Attachment Restrictions

URL Link Scanning/Rewriting